QUICK COMPS - ARACHNE & ATHENA

"Wow!" said Arachne's friends."That tapestry is beautiful that the goddess Athena herself might have made it." Arachne stuck her nose in the air."I don't think she could." "Really?" said an unfamiliar voice, and the goddess stood before her."You're a better weaver than me, are you?" Arachne's friends backed away, eyes wide with fear, but Arachne stood her ground. "There's one way to find out." Some time later, Arachne and Athena showed their finished tapestries. Athena took one look at what Arachne had made, and cried out in rage. "Sorry," said Arachne, with a smug little smile on her face. "You are the best weaver," said Athena."And I shall make sure that you weave for ever." Arachne's smile faded as she began to spin a web.
