

Dispatches from Our Lady's

IT TAKES SOMEONE
AS SPECIAL AS YOU
TO MAKE SAYING
Goodbye
THIS HARD

As we come to the end of the Academic Year, several members of our team will be leaving us (at least for a short while).

Adios and gracias to our Spanish Teacher, Senora Jamieson, and thank you and goodbye to Mrs Evans, Mrs Knight and Mrs Hudson, three of our regular cover Teachers.

We hope that Nuria, Jackie, Jane and Georgie will continue to visit OLQOH - once a member of Our Lady's, always a member.

GOOD LUCK!

Good luck to Y6 who will be performing Moana next week. Rehearsals have been excellent, with children doing themselves proud. Thank you to Y6 colleagues for their efforts in producing this year's show.

Reminders, please:

Coming to OLQOH as part of Discovery Week...

'Creative Crawley presents The Playground Tour 2025 (in partnership with The Place) - a fantastic double bill of two professional dance companies designed specifically to be performed on your school playground.

You Too Can Tutu is Gandini Juggling's first-ever children's show, blending the grace of ballet with the playful precision of juggling and 'the album: skool edition' by SAY is a joyous show about two friends making up dances in their playground, getting audiences to move, groove, and clap along.'

Coming home soon....

The final edition for 24/25 of the School Council Times Newspaper (Bumper Summer Edition). Thank you to our Editor, Miss O'Donoghue.
