

Commas for Extra Information

Commas can also be used to separate extra information in a sentence.

They go either side of the extra information.

The pupils, who had eaten lunch, went outside.

The sentence should still make sense when the extra information is removed.

- 1 Put a tick next to the sentences which use commas correctly and put a cross next to the ones that don't.

The flight, even though it felt really long, only took three hours.

My brothers who are twins, are called Eamon and Archie.

We saw, my teacher Mr Harris, in the park.

Dr Grey, our family doctor, told me to try to get more sleep.

Rewrite the incorrect sentences with commas in the right places.

.....

.....

.....

- 2 Add commas in the correct places in the sentences below.

On Thursday the day after tomorrow I am going on holiday. I am going with my two sisters Izzy and Amelia and our mum. We're spending a few days in Portugal a really hot country before flying back to England. The holiday which was quite expensive should be really fun.

Solving Calculation Problems

1

Gavin has 180 sweets. He keeps 40 for himself and shares the rest out between 6 friends so that each person gets an equal number.

How many sweets does each friend get?

1 mark

How many sweets are left over?

1 mark

2

Omar works 30 hours a week and is paid £8 per hour.

How much does he earn per week?

1 mark

Jemima is paid three quarters of the amount that Omar is paid per hour.

How much does she earn in 5 hours?

1 mark

3

Gwen buys a shirt for £12.95 and a hat for £3.99.

How much change does she get from a £20 note?

1 mark

4

Ant and Ben are baking for a cake sale.
Ant bakes for three hours and makes 60 cakes an hour.
Ben takes two hours to bake the same amount of cakes.

How many cakes does Ben make per hour?

1 mark